AMAZING CHILDREN

The Owing N.S. children put on an amazing show in Piltown Parish Community Centre on Monday night last. A total of 110 students appeared on stage and their singing and dancing was a joy to behold. They were full of life, vibrancy, enthusiasm and confidence. It was terrific to have over 550 parents, grandparents and family members in the audience. A big thank-you to the teachers and to Denis and Olivia Staunton of Funky Kids for their hard work. A special thank you to John Burke, Centre Manager, and to both the Indoor Bowling Group and Table Tennis Club for foregoing their regular Monday fixtures to enable the show's rehearsals and the concert itself.

This is the first time in many years that we have had a school performance in the Community Centre. We look forward to many more such parish events.

IVERK SHOW

In just three years time, the Iverk Show will celebrate its 200th Anniversary. For almost 200 years, the local people have exhibited their craftsmanship and skills. The tradition of handcrafts, though diminishing, is still a skill to be admired and passed on through the generations. The Arts and Crafts Marquee at the Iverk Show is considered to be among the best displays of craft in the country, showcasing the talents of primary school children up to adults. It is always one of the most visited exhibitions at the Iverk Show. Unfortunately, we are in danger of losing this showpiece, not because entries are low or because the interest in displaying the craft has waned but simply through a lack of volunteers. We need people to get involved now to continue this great history and tradition in our own locality. You do not need to be involved in any craft making yourself. As a volunteer in the Arts and Crafts, you simply need to be able to work as part of a committee to continue this tradition into the future. If you feel you would like to be part of living history, PLEASE contact us on 087-6692785 or visit iverkshow.ie for further contact details and more information.
