TRIP TO KNOCK

On Saturday 26th July a full bus load from the pastoral area of Kilmacow, Mooncoin and Templeorum left Mooncoin at 8am on the annual pilgrimage to Knock. We were sent on our way with a lovely blessing from Fr. Martin Tobin and were privileged this year to be joined by Fr. Aaron Tanko as our spiritual director who led us in prayer on the journey. We stopped in Tullamore for a lovely breakfast and some shopping and before we knew it we could see the spire on the Basilica in Knock. It was an overnight trip so once everyone was sorted in our B+B we were then free to go to the shrine in Knock which was just around the corner.

We were able to get mass in the old church that evening and Fr. Aaron got permission to con-celebrate with the priest there. After mass Fr. Aaron led us in The Stations of the Cross and after a long day we all headed back to have a cup of tea and a chat before turning in for the night. We had a full day on Sunday to get around at our own pace, getting confession, attending Adoration, sitting in the Apparition chapel etc and culminating with a beautiful uplifting mass at 3pm in the Basilica where the choir was joined by Dana for Grandparent's day. Fr. Aaron also got to take part in this mass.

We left Knock at 5pm to return home, stopping for dinner on the way, and after a Rosary of thanksgiving led by Fr. Aaron we finished our wonderful trip with the compulsory sing song. Our trip was a great success thanks to the wonderful organisers from Mooncoin namely Bridget McGrath and John Allen who do trojan work each year to make sure everything runs so smoothly but also because of the lovely people and great camaraderie between all on the trip. A big thank you to all.
