THE INK BOTTLE BUG HOTEL

People in the parish and further afield were outraged and disgusted when they saw the state of the Bug Hotel on Sunday morning last, September 14th.

The Ink bottle bug hotel was a labour of love. A unique entry to our village from Fiddown. It will be rebuilt but over time when the funds have been collected. Well over a years work went into its planning and construction before it was put on site. 2 generous sponsors funded the bug hotel, the John O Shea trust and Hickson's. The total cost was €17,000.

Gardai are working with the community to gather information.

Keep Piltown tidy would like to thank the many people, schools and organisations who all offered support during these difficult days. Various ways are being investigated to collect funds for its reconstruction. One way you can donate is through idonate

LINGAUN VALLEY TOURISM

The Lingaun Valley Tourism group invites all members of our local communities to a presentation on their new strategic plan and the exciting opportunities it presents for the area.

This is an important meeting to get your input into the plan for Lingaun Valley Tourism for the next 5 years.

We are eager to see members of the public from all villages and communities in the Lingaun Valley area attend and input into this meeting.

The meeting will be held in Ballyneale Community Centre on Thursday 25th September at 8pm.

All are Welcome to attend.

POTF COMMUNITY ALERT

POTFCA is conscious of its responsibility to its members and wider community. We need to grow our membership particularly in the Fiddown area. United we stand.

Ní nerart go cur le chéile!!

The executive will be meeting to evaluate its service and the messaging system.

The Funding of a camera extension at the Barracks is foremost on our agenda.

We will also decide on a date for our AGM at which we will have our local Garda Aoife Spellman.

Thanks for your continued support and judging by recent events we need more vigilance in the community, particularly as dark evenings are here. The elderly and living alone need support.

Donations or sponsorship are more than welcome, can be made at St. Canice's Credit Union on either Thursday or Fridays when open.

It is estimated that €4,500 will install the cameras at the Barracks.
